

LOCAL SMALL BUSINESS OWNERS GRAB THE SLOW ECONOMY BY THE HORNS!

Successful entrepreneurs don't let a recession ruin their day, but greet a downturn with an energetic and creative plan for success. Ozark Sunrooms & More, like many builders, has experienced slower than usual business, and has recently decided to open their 2,800 sq. ft. showroom to the public for events, parties, weddings, meetings and more.

To kick off this new venture, owners Diane and Bill Boss have decided to have an event of their own. To welcome in the First Day of Spring, the First Annual Ozark Sunrooms Art Show will be held on Saturday, March 20. It will be a benefit for Helping Hands of Bentonville, for whom the Boss's are donating a sunroom so recipients stay dry while waiting in line. The cost of admission to the show will be a non-perishable food item to be donated to Helping Hands Food Bank.

Local artists (many of them award-winning) will include:

Lisa Atchley	Mosaic	Tana Moore	Jewelry
Nathan Beatty	Painter	Temple Skelton Moore	Fine Art
Gary and Brenda Carter	Glass	Juli Odum	Jewelry
Debi Grimm	Painter	Jeffie Okane	Glass
Anita Hejtmanek	Jewelry	Doug Randall	Fine Art
Scott Mattson	Painter	Saralee Rhoads	Beads
Alice McKee	Fiber Arts	Joe Wittkop	Photography
Gregory Moore	Metal Painter

The art shown will represent glass, jewelry, abstract and realistic painting, wood, and fabric.
